Mysterious Fire In Damascus Almost Destroys Dwelling

Second Story And Attic Of Home Consumed In Blaze.

LOSS ESTIMATED FRIDAY AT $4,000

$600 In Currency Is Burned; Probe Cause Of Fire.

The second story and attic of A. A. Crabbe's home, one-half mile west of Damascus, were destroyed by fire late Thursday at a loss of about $4,000. Between $500 and $600 in currency is a closet was consumed by the blaze. Crabbe and his assistants were busy engaged in filling the silo when the fire broke out. The men rushed to the house and were able to check the flames.

A call for aid was sent into Damascus and Mrs. Marcia Snyder, Damascus telephone operator, sent the word over the wires. In a short time a bucket brigade had rushed from Damascus to the Crabbe farm where with united efforts the fire was extinguished. A fortunate feature was the access to an electric pump where water was obtained without delay.

The blaze in the home was attributed to a spontaneous combustion, or rats carrying matches into the press on the second floor. A quantity of books, seeds and other materials were stored there.

Two incidents lend a mysterious atmosphere to the fire. The fact that within a few minutes after the fire which had originated in a clothes closet was found burning. Within a few seconds the interior of that press would have been a mass of flames. How the suit case happened to be in that clothes closet and burning is a complete mystery to members of the Crabbe family.

The second incident of peculiar nature was the fact that some of those books taken from the press at the time of the fire, and believed to be free of all sparks and fire, started to blaze again Thursday night, as they were laying in the middle of the room on the floor.

In order to accommodate his hired help Crabbe and his wife had used the second floor of the house for themselves, allowing the first floor for the occupancy of Crabbe's farm assistant.

The fire destruction is partially covered by insurance.

Salem will be placed on a great transcontinental highway if plans of the Harding Highway association culminate satisfactorily, according to A. D. Stone of Lima, who was here yesterday busy blazing the trail of the new highway.

The system of roads, which was started a year ago as a state proposition in honor of the late president, has developed into a national project. The association hopes to see a great highway bearing the name of the Harding highway stretching from coast to coast. The route from Canton through Alliance, Sebring and Salem into Pittsburg has been selected by Scout A. D. Stone.

The preliminary survey of Ohio has been practically completed. Selection of a route east of Pittsburg will be next in order.

HIGHWAY DIRECTOR AND GOV. DONAHEY IN CLOSE ACCORD

Gravel Roads Only Good For Secondary Travel He Maintains.

East Liverpool, Sept. 28.—Despite reports to the contrary, Gov. A. V. Donahey and his highway director, L. A. Boulay, of Toledo, are in close accord. This at least was indicated by references made by Boulay during his inspection trip up the Ohio river valley Thursday.

Recently it was reported that the governor's advocacy of low-cost gravel roads did not meet with the approval of Boulay, who has been connected with huge engineering projects in this country, in the Orient and in South America during the last 25 years.

Boulay, however, explained this apparent difference of opinion.

"Some time ago I went on an inspection of roads in Champaign county, where there are many miles of good gravel roads over which one may travel 40 and 45 miles an hour. On my return to Columbus newspapermen asked me what I thought of them. 'They're good gravel roads,' I told him, with emphasis on the third word. So he quoted me as being opposed to gravel roads and committed to high-type highway construction."

"As a matter of fact," Boulay added, "I recognize the fact that gravel makes a good secondary road. But for heavy traffic only class A highways will stand the wear. Gov. Donahey and I do not in any way disagree in this. If we were not in accord, I would step out tomorrow."

The highway head did not deny that he had placed his resignation in Gov. Donahey's hands, but his utterances indicated that he holds office free of restraint and without fear of political entanglements.

REPUBLICANS WILL REPEAL GUARANTEE PART OF RAIL ACT

Transportation Act Will Believe Germany Will Now Face Bombardment From Administration.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The Coolidge administration has virtually decided to repeal the "guarantee clause" of the transportation act as a means of bringing about a general reduction of freight rates early next year, it was learned today.

This plan will be substituted by President Coolidge in the next congress for the compulsory railroad consolidation program advocated by his predecessor, the late President Harding, according to reliable authority. The Coolidge proposal probably will include restoration of the interstate commerce commission of the rate-fixing power held prior to government operation of the railroads.

Repeal of the "guarantee clause"—section 15-A—will have the support of all administration leaders in congress. It is understood Republican leaders urged this action upon the president as the only possible government action toward reducing high transportation costs, a step demanded by farm organizations throughout the country.

Although the compulsory consolidation program has been worked upon by government agencies for a year, the plan has met a veritable storm of opposition, not only from railroad executives but from legislators and representatives of farm organizations as well.

The federal trade commission, in a report to President Coolidge today, urged an immediate reduction in freight rates. It pointed out in statistics the "spread" in prices of grains from the farmer to the consumer and showed a great part of the distribution cost was charged to the railroads. In 1919-1920, the commission reported the cost of marketing wheat was 33.20 cents per bushel, of which 14.31 cents went to transportation costs.

This was an increase of 3.32 cents a bushel over the transportation costs for the years 1912-1917. A similar increase of 4.33 cents per bushel in transportation costs for the same periods was noted in the marketing of corn. Besides the reduction of freight rates, the commission urged more cooperative marketing by farmers to reduce the "spread."

FARMER CONFESSES TO KILLING AKRON TAXICAB DRIVER

Youth Confesses, Say Police, To Slaying Benedetti With Lead Pipe.

Akron, Sept. 28.—According to police, Claude Snyder, 29, a farmer of Copley, has confessed to the murder early Thursday morning of George Benedetti, 22, a local taxicab driver.

Snyder was arrested as the last man seen with Benedetti, and after a three-hour grilling by Harry Walsh, chief of detectives, and other officers of the police department, is said to have admitted shooting the taxi driver after knocking him senseless.

According to the report of the confession, Snyder had been riding in the taxi up and down the Copley rd. for hours with Benedetti. About 3 o'clock a dispute arose, and the driver started to get out from behind the wheel to seize the farmer. Thereupon Snyder hit him in the back of the head with a section of lead pipe, and then sent him 22 caliber bullets in his victim's head and body. When first arrested, Snyder insisted that he left the automobile near his home at midnight. The killing occurred about 3 a. m. Thursday, according to police, and the body was found at daylight in the car on the Copley-Montrose rd., by a man on his way to work.

Survivors Helpless In Efforts To Save Those Imprisoned Below.

APPALLING DISASTER WORST IN HISTORY

Porter And Oil Man Are Heroes Of Tragedy Of Western Wreck.

Casper, Wyo., Sept. 28.—Standing on either bank of Cold Creek scores of persons were helpless early today in efforts to remove the dead from the wreckage of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy passenger train No. 30, the engine and five cars of which plunged into a raging torrent from a bridge near Lockett, 14 miles east of here last night.

The appalling disaster, the worst of the annals of Wyoming railroads, took a total estimated all the way from 40 to 100.

Dr. D. J. O'Donnell, surgeon for the railroad company declared not more than 40 were dead but a check by newspapermen in Casper and Glenrock indicated that between 115 and 120 passengers were on the train when it left Casper.

Thirty-four are known to have been rescued alive and the death list depends upon the number of passengers on the ill-fated train.

John Christie, an oil driller, of Glenrock, after cutting a bell cord, from the chair car, aided two women, two children and a man to reach safety by crawling hand over hand on a rope from the car to the bank of the creek nearly exhausted he then reached the bank himself.

S. O. S. calls were sent out all over Wyoming and northern Colorado early today for divers and heavy hoisting apparatus and it was thought removal of the dead could not be started until the middle of the day.

Bridge Collapses. Or the eight survivors brought to Casper on a relief train, none was injured so seriously as to require hospital treatment. All were suffering from nervous shock from their experience and found difficulty in telling a coherent story of the disaster. Their accounts agreed on these details:

The engine, tender and baggage car of the train, one of the most heavily traveled into Denver from the northwest, had crossed the bridge when the structure collapsed. The express car and three chair cars fell into the flood, dragging the engine and tender back into the river. The first Pullman on the train behind the chair car was precipitated into the last chair car. It was from this Pullman that the majority of the survivors made their escape.

Heroism of a Pullman porter made their escape possible, they said. He smashed his way to freedom through a window taking a rope with him which he threw back to the imprisoned passengers after he had gained the river bank. The rope was made fast inside the Pullman and the survivors made their escape by pulling themselves hand over hand to the bank.

Daniel J. McQuade of Denver, traveling representative of the Taylor Instrument company, of Rochester, N. Y., brought first news from the scene of the wreck. He escaped through a Pullman window and made his way to the bank. He headed for the lights of Midwestern camp, in the Big Muddy oil fields, four miles distant.

BANDITS OPERATE THROUGHOUT SYRIA

Near East Workers Say Brigands Are Operating On Large Scale.

Beirut, Sept. 28.—(By Mail).—Near East Relief workers arriving here report that bandits are operating on a large scale in northern Syria, especially between Aleppo and the Turkish frontier, and between that city and the coast.

Though in some places outrages have been traced to local outlaws most of the robbers are believed to be Chetehs, who until recently were serving as irregular troops with the Turkish Nationalists. The victims are chiefly Armenians and other native Christians but Arabs have also suffered.

According to reports from other sources, Turkish officials in the French colonial government and civilians are apparently acting in collusion with the Chetehs. In a raid on the home of a former Turkish official the government secured the names of 50 Turks said to be plotting with the brigands for an invasion of Aleppo. Forty Turks have been arrested and Turkish officials in the government are being replaced with Arabs.

Chetehs operating on the road between Aleppo and the port of Alexandretta recently killed an Armenian family of eight. Another group attacked a village within an hour's automobile journey of Aleppo and carried off the son of a well-to-do merchant.

The French military commission has announced its determination to wipe out the brigands.

PYORRHEA CAN BE CONQUERED

To effectively combat the disease, a new preparation called "Pyroform" was recently perfected by the Pyroform Company, San Bernardino, California.

This new comedy has achieved success in the most advanced cases, cases that were considered hopeless. As an illustration. One woman wed about to have her teeth extracted when her attention was called to "Pyroform." She used this preparation and today her gums and teeth are sound and healthy and no trace of Pyorrhea remains. ## HUSBAND CRUEL, COUPLE DIVORCED

Lisbon, Sept. 28. — At a session of divorce court held Friday morning, Judge Moore granted three divorce decrees.

ASKS THAT COURT DECIDE OWNERSHIP

Lisbon, Sept. 28. — W. F. Smith, as receiver for McConnell & Co., of Salineville, has filed a petition in common pleas court against James McConnell and others, members of the partnership, in which he asks that the court decide the interest of the firm of McConnell & Co. in certain lots in Salineville and a farm in Jefferson county.

The plaintiff states that the defendants claim that real estate known as lot one in Salineville and lots 736 and 739 in addition to the village are not the property of the company, but that lot one was used as a place of business and the building repaired and remodeled by the company.

He asks that the defendant be required to turn over to him the books of the company and to set up their interests in real estate in Salineville and the farm in Jefferson county and that such real estate as shall be found belonging to the company be sold and the funds applied to the liquidation.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN
When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine for woman's ills, it is any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in short time so I was able to do all of my housework including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it.

Built by the American People

THE Railroads were not built by railroad men, and they are not owned by railroad men. They were built by the merchants and farmers of the United States, and they are now owned indirectly by all the people of the United States.

The whole splendid system of railroads as it exists today was built with capital, energy and brains furnished by American business men and American farmers with the high purpose of developing the commercial and agricultural interests of the country.

Every one knows that as soon as the iron horse drew his shadow across the land the farms which the Government could scarcely give away suddenly jumped in value to fifty or a hundred dollars an acre, because the railroads had supplied them with the means of development, production and distribution.

When the railroads are making plenty of money, every shop is humming a song of happiness and every farm is growing rich.

WOMAN PROTESTS KILLER'S SENTENCE

Claims Her Husband Should Not Have Died If Negro Doesn't.

Cincinnati, Sept. 28. — The widow of Noble "Red" Holt, who was electrocuted last spring for the murder of a Cincinnati detective, is preparing a protest to Gov. Donahay against the sentence of life imprisonment meted out last week to a negro for the murder of a policeman while resisting arrest.

"I want to remind the governor that I pleaded with him to spare my husband's life for the sake of our two children, and he would not," Mrs. Holt said last night. "The negro is not married and had no family, yet his life is spared while that of my husband is taken."

A juror who held out for a recommendation for mercy for the negro yesterday received an anonymous letter denouncing him for that action.

NEW COMBINATION OF RED AND BLACK TO PLAY TOMORROW

Massillon Game Will Be Another Severe Test For Green Eleven.

Coach Richtman Thursday afternoon put his Salem High team through the last hard scrimmage preparatory to the Massillon game Saturday. An entirely new lineup will face last year's state champions when the whistle blows at 2:30 tomorrow.

Richtman and his assistants have been trying out different combinations all week. Thursday night it looked as though for the first time this season the squad got signals with little difficulty. The Red and Black worry Saturday will be on the line and a lot of attention has been given in that direction.

This seems to be the probable lineup for Saturday: Left end, Lodge or Krapp; left tackle, Houser; left guard, Corso; center, Sidenker or Simonds; right guard, Stalheim; right tackle, V. Judge; right end, Konert; quarter, Boya; halves, Bingham, Cox, Cosgrove, Duncan; fullback, Sartick.

In addition to the above men, these others will make the trip and some of them may start the game in place of the ones named. Yoder, R. Judge, Coffey, Duncan, Spiker, Bush, Miller and Houts. Manager Howell, Assistant Manager Zimmerman and Principal C. M. Rohrbaugh with the coaches will comprise the party. They will leave the High school at 11 a. m.

RUTH SLUMPS, SO DO REST OF YANKS AS SERIES NEARS

New York, Sept. 28.—Just 12 months ago almost to the day, the New York Yanks were pleased to have themselves visited by a hitting famo (that began a week before the end of the regular league season and ended on the final day of the world's series. They couldn't hit a medicine ball with a fly swatter, and in consequence, the Giant pitchers were made to appear better than they really were. History has been known to repeat. Likewise the Yankees.

Today they are in another hitting slump and even George H. Ruth, the well known left fielder, has become a party to the proposition. In fact, George has hit so infrequently of late that he has just about made himself a victim of self-elimination in the race with Harry Heilmann for individual batting honors.

"I don't like the way the boys are swinging," declared Miller Huggins today. "The games of the last two days were all too reminiscent of last year when the team fell into a batting slump before the end of the campaign and carried it right through the world's series."

Club Wancher Ruth
"It is no star chamber secret that the ball club, in toto, adapts itself with marked readiness to any and all moods that may seize upon our Mr. Ruth. When he hits, they hit. When he doesn't, they don't. Seemingly, it would be the height of presumption to sock one on the bias when the noble fellow himself is unable to do likewise."

Ruth has been in a hitting slump for the past 12 months. In fact, he has not hit a home run since August 12, 1922. His average is .365 and he is slumping. It was the same last year, only more so. On that occasion Ruth went into the world's series with a band wagon and emerged to the plaintive notes of a piccolo solo. His average was something like .128 and this in spite of the fact that McGraw had a staff of pitchers that operated on the theory of three-or-no-count. Seldom was the original nominee able to finish what he started during the regular season; yet the world's series witnessed a season of notable performance.

ances by Art Nehf, Jesse Barnes, John Scott and Hugh McQuillan.

The answer must have gone further than the mere overnight ability of these men to pitch according to major league standards. In fact, it went all the way back to the difficulty of nine Yanks to hit a medicine ball with a flyswatter.

LISBON MASONS HONOR MINISTER

Lisbon, Sept. 28.—Rev. D. E. Scott, who goes to Cleveland to take up the pastorate of a Methodist church there after having served the local congregation for the past four years, was tendered a farewell party by the Masonic baseball team at the lodge rooms Wednesday night.

The features of the entertainment were a supper and a baseball game. This game was played in the lodge room under some wild and wooly rules. The pitcher was placed in a small drygoods box and pitched an eight-inch rubber ball. The batters used their heads for bats. After making a hit the runners were forced to make the bases on their hands and knees.

After the "game" Rev. P. W. McCaulay of the Presbyterian church presented Rev. Scott with a fine traveling bag as a remembrance from the team. The presentation was responded to by Rev. Scott. Mr. Scott accompanied by his family left for Cleveland Thursday morning to take up his new work.

NABLE AND RYAN MIX ON MONDAY

Sammy Nable of New York and Tommy Ryan of McKeesport, two of the leading bantamweights of the country, will mix it in a 12-round go at the Youngstown Athletic club in Oak Hill auditorium Monday night. Both are fast and clever with their hands and a hot battle is in prospect. A delegation of Salem boxing fans will make the trip.

Two good preliminaries are carded and in the semi-final two Youngstown bantams, Johnny Rind and Frankie Stelmack, featherweights, will go eight rounds.

REFERENDUM QUESTION UP

Actual Work Started by the State Health Department Under Provisions of the Shepard-Towner Maternity and Infancy Law—Women to Co-operate in Fire Prevention Work—State Affairs.

Columbus, Sept. 28. — Ohio's supreme court, which convened today for the fall term, will pass upon the Taft taxation law revising and redefining the tax laws of the state, and of the Albaugh bill, a companion measure, designed to abolish elective assessors in wards and townships. The decision will determine whether the voters are to be given a chance at these two laws at the election on Nov. 6. Enacted by the Eighty-fifth general assembly, they were vetoed by Governor Donahey and repassed, notwithstanding his objections. The next obstacle they met was the referendum proceedings instituted by the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards. The decision will settle the controversy with respect to the question whether the contested laws are immune from referendum or must run the gauntlet of the ballots. Opponents of the Taft act referendum filed with the supreme court their briefs setting forth every possible legal objection to permitting the Taft act to be submitted to the people for their approval. Chief issue in the suit brought by the Cincinnati chamber of commerce to compel the state tax commission to furnish the budget forms as provided by the Taft act, is that the measure is not subject to referendum.

It is pointed out that the constitution provides that laws "providing for tax levies" are not subject to referendum, and the contention is made that the Taft act is "a law which, by every rule of construction, is a law providing for tax levies." Even under a narrow definition of this provision it is contended the law is not subject to referendum because one section of the act requires boards of education to levy 2.65 mills.

In the suit brought by John E. McCrehen, president of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards, against Secretary of State Brown, to restrain Brown from ruling as to the sufficiency of the referendum petitions, the chief contention is that the petitions themselves are not such as to meet the referendum requirements.

Uncertainty also exists with respect to the old age pension proposal, initiated by organized labor and the Fraternal Order of Eagles and to be approved or rejected by the voters on Nov. 6. The sufficiency of many signatures appearing on the petitions filed by the initiators has been attacked in some counties and submission of the proposal depends on the determination of how many signatures are valid.

Buckeye women will be asked to co-operate in fire prevention work by Mrs. Lucretia Peabody, new assistant to State Fire Marshal Louis F. Miller, during fire prevention week, the second week in October. This will be the first time that an active campaign will be made among the women of the state. Mrs. Peabody conferred with officials of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs in Cleveland last week in the matter. She will devote some of her time during her service with the fire marshal's office to addressing women's clubs and other organizations, departing from the old practice of having the woman assistant give all of her time to talks in the school. During fire prevention week, Mrs. Peabody will make a number of talks to women's societies throughout the state.

That an active interest is being taken in the special week by many organizations throughout the state is proved by 25 requests for speakers which have come into the fire marshal's office. These requests are from Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and other organizations of civic-spirited citizens.

Former State Director of Agriculture L. J. Taber is the owner of Sunnyside Sis, 349654, that has just qualified for a gold medal. This cow started her year's work when 7 years and 6 months of age and completed with 15,682 pounds of milk and 763.30 pounds of butter fat to her credit. She carried calf 173 days of her test period. In May Sis produced as high as 73.55 pounds. Proof of this cow's persistency of yield lies in the fact that her production averaged between 60 and 70 pounds every month on test, with the exception of the above mentioned, when she produced higher. This cow was placed on test as a 6-year-old and produced 13,751 pounds of milk and 649.61 pounds butter fat. Lad's Foxy Boy, 102800, is the sire of this medal winner, and the Boy has a total of eight register of merit daughters, one of which is a silver medal cow. ### PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO

ARTICLE II, SECTION 35

PROPOSING TO AMEND SECTION 35 OF ARTICLE II OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO, RELATING TO WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the state of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, in the manner provided by law, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1923, a proposal to amend section 35 of article II of the constitution of the state of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 35. For the purpose of providing compensation to workmen and their dependents for death, injuries or occupational disease, occasioned in the course of such workmen's employment, laws may be passed establishing a state fund to be created by compulsory contribution thereto by employers, and administered by the state, determining the terms and conditions upon which payments shall be made therefrom. Such contribution shall be in lieu of all other rights to compensation, or damages, for such death, injuries, or occupational disease, and any employer who pays the premium or compensation provided by law, passed in accordance herewith, shall not be liable to respond for damages at common law or by statute for such death, injuries or occupational disease. Laws may be passed establishing a board which may be empowered to classify all occupations, according to their degree of hazard, to fix rates of contribution to such fund according to such classification, and to collect, administer and distribute such fund, and to determine all rights of claimants thereto. Such board shall set aside as a separate fund such proportion of the contributions paid by employers as in its judgment may be necessary, not to exceed one per centum thereof in any year, the balance thereof, to be expended by such board in such manner as may be provided by law for the prevention and protection of industrial accidents and diseases. Such board shall have full power and authority to hear and determine whether or not an injury, disease or death resulted because of the failure of the employer to comply with any specific requirement for the protection of the lives, health or safety of employees, enacted by the General Assembly or in the form of an order adopted by such board, and its decision shall be final; and the purpose of such investigations and inquiries it may appoint referees. When it is found, upon hearing, that an injury, disease or death resulted because of such failure by the employer, such amount as shall be found to be just, not greater than fifty per centum of the amount of the maximum award established by law, shall be added by the board, to the amount of the compensation that may be awarded on account of such injury, disease, or death, and paid in like manner as other awards; and, if such compensation is paid from the state fund, the premium of such employer shall be increased in such amount covering such period of time as may be fixed, as will recoup the state fund in the amount of such additional award, notwithstanding any and all other provisions in this constitution.

SCHEDULE: If a majority of the electors voting on said amendment shall be determined, on the first day of January, 1924, and said original section 35 of article II of the constitution of Ohio shall thereupon be repealed.

Be it further resolved, That at the election herein provided for for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state, the same shall be placed upon this official ballot in the manner provided by law, and shall be designated as follows:

Providing compensation for all accidents and diseases arising out of employment, providing additional compensation for employees where accident or disease results from failure to comply with specific requirements for the protection of lives, health and safety of employees, establishing open liability of employers, and providing a fund for the investigation and prevention of industrial accidents and diseases. YES.

Providing compensation for all accidents and diseases arising out of employment, providing additional compensation for employees where accident or disease results from failure to comply with specific requirements for the protection of lives, health and safety of employees, establishing open liability of employers, and providing a fund for the investigation and prevention of industrial accidents and diseases. NO.

And be it further resolved, That the required publication of said amendment shall be made, and the time of the ballot to be used at said election for the submission thereof, shall be prepared by the secretary of state in conformity with law and the foregoing provisions.

ARTICLE V, SECTION 1

Be it further resolved, That at such election above referred to, this proposal shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner provided by law in such form as the secretary of state may designate.

ARTICLE II, SECTION 1g

PROPOSING TO AMEND ARTICLE II, SECTION 1g, OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO RELATIVE TO PUBLICATION OF NOTICE OF PROPOSED LAWS OR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TOGETHER WITH ARGUMENTS FOR AND AGAINST.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the state of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1923, a proposal to amend article II, section 1g, of the constitution of the state of Ohio to read as follows:

Sec. 1g. Any initiative, supplementary or referendum petition may be presented in separate parts, each part containing a full and correct copy of the title, and text of the law, section or item thereof sought to be amended, or the proposed law or proposed amendment to the constitution. Each signer of any initiative, supplementary or referendum petition must be an elector of the state and shall place on such petition after his name the date of signing and his place of residence. A signer residing outside of a municipality shall state the township and county in which he resides. The petition and signatures upon such petitions so verified, shall be presumed to be in all respects sufficient, unless not later than forty days before the election, it shall be otherwise proved and in such event ten additional days shall be allowed for the filing of additional signatures to such petition. No law or amendment to the constitution submitted to the electors by initiative and supplementary petition and receiving an affirmative majority of the votes cast thereon, shall be held unconstitutional or void on account of the insufficiency of the signatures by which such submission of any law submitted by referendum petition is held invalid for such insufficiency. Upon all initiative, supplementary and referendum petitions provided for in any of the sections of this article, it shall be necessary to file from each of one-half of the counties of the state, petitions bearing the signatures of not less than one-half of the qualified electors of the electors of such county. The person or persons who prepare the argument or explanation, or both, for the law, section or item, submitted to the electors by referendum petition, or against any proposed law submitted by supplementary petition, shall be named by the general assembly, if in session, and if not in session then by the governor. The secretary of state shall either (a) cause to be printed the law, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution, together with the arguments and explanations, not exceeding a total of three hundred words for each, and also the arguments and explanations, not exceeding a total of three hundred words against each, and shall mail, or cause to be mailed, a copy of such law, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution, together with such arguments and explanations, to each elector of the state, as far as may be reasonably possible, or (b) cause to be prepared such law, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution, together with the arguments and explanations, not exceeding a total of three hundred words for each, and cause the same to be published in one or more newspapers in each county of the state, once each week, for more than three consecutive weeks, the last publication thereof to be not less than ten days prior to the day of election.

Be it further resolved, That at such election above referred to this proposal shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner provided by law in such form as the secretary of state may designate.

If the votes for the proposal shall exceed those against it, this amendment shall take effect on the first day of January, 1924, and the original section 1g of article II of the constitution of the state of Ohio shall be repealed and annulled.

TO PASS ON TAFT TAX

His is Lady Blyth II, 349652, a gold medal cow with a record of 719.12 pounds fat as an 8-year-old.

Officials of the state health department have started actual work under provisions of the Shepard-Towner maternity and infancy law. Two nurses, Misses Florence C. Thorn and Una B. Frisbie, left for Belmont county, where, in conjunction with the county board of health, they will work for several months to reduce the mortality among mothers and infants.

The state's part in the Shepard-Towner national program is being carried out under Dr. R. C. Leland, chief of the division of hygiene, and Miss V. Lotta Lorimer, chief of the division of public health nursing. Dr. Leland and Dr. John E. Menger, state health director, spent last week in Washington conferring with national health officials on the administration of the Shepard-Towner fund in Ohio.

The work will include general health principles specifically applied to mothers and children of pre-school age.

Results of work in Belmont county and other counties to be chosen soon, will determine the permanent policy of the health department in regard to accepting federal aid and partial supervision in infant work.

State headquarters of Ohio League of Women Voters announces that intensive efforts will be put forth the first two weeks in October to bring to a close a successful sustaining membership campaign. This sustaining membership campaign has been going on all over the country since early summer.

"Believing that the addition of over 20,000,000 women to the electorate is of enormous potential value to the community," says Miss Juliette Sessions, state president, "the League of Women Voters will push its sustaining membership campaign for the purpose of developing these new voters into a force for good government."

"The league this year, as never before," according to its officials, "is offering opportunities for disinterested nonpartisan education through citizenship schools, institutes, classes, forums and discussion groups, bulletins and educational material of great variety, and it issues unbiased information about parties, candidates and measures."

The league's big job this fall will be stimulating activity in public affairs, particularly registering and voting.

The budget of the National League of Women Voters is $125,500, while the Ohio league's budget for the year is $13,500, according to Miss Grace Peters, treasurer.

Consideration of the league's interests were made at a meeting of the state executive board and the board of directors in Columbus last week. Department work was carefully mapped out by Mrs. Louise Johnson Bing, chairman of the committee on education and child welfare; Mrs. William E. Henderson, chairman international co-operation to prevent war; Mrs. Dora Sandoe Bachman, chairman uniform laws concerning woman; and Miss Sybil Burton, chairman department of training for citizenship.

"A recent questioning of teachers shows that the school attendance law is being unevenly enforced over the state," asserted Mrs. Bing, who urged all officials of the League of Women Voters to ascertain who their school attendance officers are and whether the law is being enforced in their localities.

The next move in Governor Donahay's efforts to remove George T. Poor of Cincinnati as a member of the state utilities commission appears to be up to Attorney General Crabbe. Donahay recently asked Crabbe whether he could force Poor out, alleging that the commissioner had admitted he owned stock in the Cities Service company. This company, Donahay said, owned a number of Ohio utilities, whose rates were fixed by the commission, and membership in that body of a man who owned such stock was against the statutes on such cases made and provided. Crabbe replied that ownership of stock in a utilities company probably barred the owner from the commission, but failed to state whether he thought Poor could be ousted, or whether stock in the Cities Service company came under the statute.

Replying to the attorney general, Donahay asked that suit be brought to oust Poor, and Crabbe came back a few days later, saying he was willing to bring the suit, but asked the governor to read an opinion recently rendered in Arizona to the effect, he said, that ownership of stock in a holding company was not a bar to membership on the utilities commission. The governor read the opinion, and then, in the last, to date, of the diplomatic notes exchanged, said that regardless of what the Arizona courts said, he wanted "a decision from the Ohio courts."

Herman Witter, state director of industrial relations, has called upon T. H. Newhall of the Drexel-Morgan company, Philadelphia, to "personally and promptly take a hand" in an effort to settle the streetcar men's strike at Lima. Newhall, according to Witter, is the "authorized representative of the interests having control of the Lima Street Railway company," and he asks that the Philadelphia man give the matter "immediate and earnest consideration."

Witter was named by Governor Donahay as personal representative in attempting to mediate between the company and the striking employees.

Experts Say Consumers Are To Blame For Price Of Coal

Consumers Should Store Supply Of Coal During Summer Months.

Columbus, Sept. 28. — If Ohio consumers would store from two to three months' supply of coal during the summer they would help bring about a great improvement in the coal industry besides effecting an appreciable saving to the family pocketbook.

Such is the conclusion of H. E. Nold, professor of mine engineering, in the Ohio State university, and W. H. Snook, engineer with the state public utilities commission, following a survey of the Ohio coal situation. Their findings have been published recently in a pamphlet "The Ohio Consumers' Coal Problem."

Fluctuation in the bituminous industry, caused by seasonal demands, Prof. Nold and Mr. Snook point out, leads to irregular and intermittent employment of soft coal miners. This in turn is one of the fundamental causes of labor troubles in the industry.

Other major difficulties in the country's fuel situation, they point out, are: Inadequate transportation facilities at times of peak demand and excess facilities at periods of slack demand.

Overdevelopment of the industry with an annual mine capacity of 750,000,000 tons to supply a normal demand for 500,000,000 tons.

Overmanning of the industry as a result of which about 200,000 more miners are supported by the industry than are necessary to produce the country's coal supply if all are given steady employment.

Failure of the consumer to lay in a considerable portion of his winter's fuel needs during the summer.

Storage of coal by the domestic consumer during the summer months, they contend, would bring about a three-fold result; a decided stabilization of the coal industry, a considerable measure of relief to the railroads by making a more uniform demand on their equipment, and a general reduction in cost of coal to operators with a consequent lowering of the price of coal to the consumers.

Pointing out that the average working year in the bituminous fields of the United States have averaged 215 days or less for the last 20 years, and less than 220 days in Ohio, the investigators say that such a condition breeds unrest and discontent among the miners so employed and develops a seasonal price which materially increases the cost of coal to the consumer, since the price he pays must be high enough to carry the expenses of the dull periods and the extra expense of additional equipment necessary to handle the business in rush times.

The economic mining and storage of bituminous coal at the mines, they add, has not been found possible to any great extent. The seasonal nature of the demand for coal therefore makes it necessary for the mining companies to maintain a production capacity adequate to meet a maximum demand in a short time. This excess capacity further involves the employment of a huge labor reserve.

A much better condition, they maintain would be a steady demand for coal and a reduction in the number of miners so that all could work 300 days instead of 200 as at present to produce the country's needs.

Prof. Nold, Dean Hitchcock of the college of engineering at Ohio State, Mr. Snook and E. R. Andrix, of the Columbus Railway, Power & Light Co., constitute a local committee which is investigating steps to be taken to stabilize the coal industry. Through the survey, which is part of a nation-wide undertaking, it is hoped to establish the effect heavier summer storage would have on production costs and the ultimate price to the consumer.

NEW WATERFORD

Rev. R. N. Ball of East Rochester, preached his first sermon to New Waterford people on Sunday. He will move into the parsonage here this week. New Waterford shares her pastor with Negley this year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gilmore moved to Struthers on Wednesday. Mr. Gilmore is employed by the Trucon Steel Co. of Youngstown.

Mrs. Thomas Casselman of Canton and her guest, Mrs. W. A. Stuntz of Owensboro, Ky., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Phillips. Mrs. Casselman returned home that evening and Mrs. Stuntz left on Monday for Philadelphia where she will visit before returning to her home in Kentucky.

Mrs. Mary Phillips has over 800 bushels of her fall apples gathered. She estimates her entire apple crop at 6,000 bushels.

The High school party which was an event of last Friday night was an enjoyable affair in spite of the fact that it was an initiation party for freshmen. It was held at the school house.

Work was begun on the resurfacing of the New Waterford-East Palestine rd. on Wednesday.

Mrs. Koch Williams spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Luther Dunlar of Youngstown, who was ill.

Miss Kate Spratt of East Palestine spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCune.

Clogged-Up? Here's Quick Aid

NEVER mind what you are using now for constipation. For all you know there is a better remedy! The next time you are clogged up, try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a laxative successfully used for 30 years, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Mrs. John A. Goins of Butlerville, Ind., constipated all her life, her stomach injured from years of pill taking, is now functioning daily since taking Syrup Pepsin; and Mr. David O'Connor of Canton, Ohio, suffering steadily for three years, got relief after a few doses. The list of successful users of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is naturally large as over 10 million bottles are sold annually.

Formula on Every Package
Get yourself a bottle at a drug store, the cost being less than a cent a dose. Take a spoonful at bedtime for a few nights and we guarantee that the most chronic constipation will be relieved, or refund your money. A few doses in succession soon train the stomach muscles to act for themselves. Many, however, take it once

This Remedy Guaranteed

It has been accurately proven that a constipated person is only 75 per cent efficient. It slows you up; makes you dull and lazy. Take Syrup Pepsin the first day you do not have complete bowel movement. Take it, guaranteed, for constipation, torpid liver, dyspepsia, biliousness, sour stomach, headache, lack of appetite. A spoonful at the first sneeze or snuffle will kill a cold overnight. Half the ailments of winter start with constipation followed by a cold.

Ford THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Sedan

Changes featured in the new Ford Sedan make it a better looking, roomier car.

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged cowl curving gracefully to the dash give a stylish sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize with the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showroom.

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
